

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Brian C. Flynn, Jr., graduated at the top of his high school class, went on to attend prestigious Williams College, and spent his junior year at the London School of Economics, trying to figure out if the dismal science is really science--or magic; and,

WHEREAS, Brian returned to Williams his senior year and graduated Phi Beta Kappa in the spring of 1983, after completing a 200-page thesis on revising the federal income tax system (which recommended that economists pay no taxes); and,

WHEREAS, Brian had been accepted at Georgetown Law School, but since he had trouble making their basketball team, he chose to go into General Electric Corporation's Financial Program, where he is now in training to become a capitalist tool; and,

WHEREAS, Brian has always excelled in sports, having been a golf, tennis, and skiing champion, as well as a second degree brown belt in karate (which he earned while training to make TV commercials for cologne); and,

WHEREAS, By his great and loyal friendship to Andrea Smith, Brian has ventured into the wild, unknown, and unexplored regions of South Dakota, riding with airlines he has never heard of and seeing animals he thought existed only in movies and on breakfast cereal boxes:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 29, 1984, as

BRIAN C. FLYNN, JR., DAY

In South Dakota, and I extend my congratulations to Brian for surviving his perilous journey and living to the advanced age of 23 years.

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
